Students identified as “unduplicated” by the Fremont Unified School District can participate in the ELOP program at no cost. Unduplicated refers to students who are designed in one or more of the following categories: English Learners, Foster Youth, homeless students, migrant students, and students who are free or reduced-price meal eligible under the National School Lunch Program (NSLP). Students must be pre-approved for the ELOP program by the Fremont Unified School District. For information regarding ELOP program approval in Fremont, please contact Steven Musto, FUSD Assistant Director of Extended Learning at smusto@fusdk12.net. Thank you.

The age range for the Adventure Time Summer Day Camp program is four years nine months (and entering kindergarten) through entering sixth grade and no older than twelve years.
